This is a handwritten musical score for a 16-part ensemble, consisting of 16 staves. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and bar lines, with some parts featuring complex rhythmic patterns and accidentals. The score is written in a single system across the page.

A handwritten musical score for the song 'The Rose Tree'. The score is written on 15 staves, organized into three systems of five staves each. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and bar lines. There are several annotations in parentheses, including '(a2)', '(a3)', and '(a4)', which likely refer to specific parts or variations of the music. The handwriting is in ink on aged paper.
